

SKIT: Jesus is Something Else

PUPPET: (old Man)
Mr. Crispy

Hey Jim, Jim?
I can't see. Help me.

Is this what it's like to be old.

Oh heaven forbid.

Jim?

How come I can't see.

Do I have glaucoma?

Do I need glasses?

How did I get that
over my eyes?

Oh Yeah, Junior was playing the game of
"LIFE", and had all the lights on.

And I had to cover my eyes so I could get
some shuteye.

And that reminds me
of a story...

Do you want to hear a good one.

It's a doozy.

It's about Jesus, and
some of the funny

things he did, and it's
all in the Bible.

I need someone to
help me out.

Okay son, pretend
you're blind.

What does it feel like?

What does it look like?

Can I help you?

Can I heal you?

How can Jesus heal
you from being blind?

Do you know what
Jesus did for the blind
man?

He put mud on his
eyes.

Yucky huh.

Then he had the blind
man go to the other
side of the city.

Okay son, pretend
you're going over the other side of the city.

Isn't that hard?

Jesus is something else. But you know what?

The blind man obeyed
Jesus.

And had someone
help him to get to the pool on the other side
of the city.

And he washed the
mud off his eyes.

What happened?

The blind man could
see. Yes.

The blind man obeyed
Jesus.

Did the mud make the blind man see?

Did the water that
cleaned the mud off
his eyes, make the
blind man see?

Did obeying all the instructions of Jesus
make the blind man to see?

Yes.

That's how Jesus
wants us to be like.

We all are blind. We all can't see at first.
But if we obey Jesus,
and go to the pool
and wash the sin off
the eyes of our heart,

we can be healed as
well.

Our life can be brand
new.

Jesus is something
else.
